

Kendall Talbot in Top 100 Australia's search for our Favourite Novelist

Every year, Booktopia asks Australian readers to nominate their favourite novelist.

To be in the Top 100, with a debut novel is extraordinary.

Lost in Kakadu is a story of love, survival, grief, adventure and undying love. It obviously hit some special chords with Australian readers.

Since this book was released on 1st August 2013, Lost In Kakadu has also reached number 1 on the charts with both iTunes and Booktopia. And it's featured many times in the Kobo top 50.

When a small plane crashes into Australia's harsh Kakadu National Park the survivors think they're lucky to be alive, until rescuers never come. The plane crash isn't the only action. The survival aspect also very real. From wild animals, to wild weather and near starvation, every day the characters have a new aspect of living hell to get through. Fate brought them together but they need more than luck to escape Kakadu alive.

Kendall Talbot is a writer, thrill seeker and a hopeless romantic. She's also a bucket list achiever who loves to travel. These experiences are what drives her passion for writing fiction. Kendall has travelled extensively, some 36 countries and counting. She loves adventures that make her scream... white water rafting, scuba diving with sharks and hang gliding are just a few. Her stories reflect her sense of adventure and her long running love affair with her very own hero.
